Salt and Light

Nelson Mandela used this quote in one of his speeches that helped to re-define the nation of South Africa. He got it from Marianne Williamson's book: A Return to Love: Reflections on Principles of A Course in Miracles:

"Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as children do. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others."

Jesus said to the crowds one day: "You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world." He did not say: "try to be salt and light." He didn't even say: One day you might be salt and light.

He said: You Are salt and light.
